When they got the treasure belonging to Grandpa.

They set off to the well to look for the treasure. What they didn't know was Evil Red Beard the Devil was on the Island too.

"Oh no! we have been followed by the bad pirate" screamed Jim

The story of Evil Red Beard the Devil

They got tricked by wrapping a snake around their neck for good luck.

Jim had explained we need to get the snake off our neck because they are poisonous they are not for good luck.

So they took the snake off their neck carefully and set off to look for the treasure at poisonous pools.

They sneakily got the key from dragon's cave by quietly tiptoeing behind the dragon.

Jim had and Polly tricked the bad pirate by telling him to go up the volcano for a better view.

Suddenly Jim had saw the bad
pirate climbing up the volcano and he slipped down
and burned himself.

Jim had screamed "run away home quick we need to get away from the bad pirates"

They ran away safely back to the ship and they were relieved.
