

Donate your unwanted items
to local charities.

It's as simple as that.

Do you have things piling up that you just don't need?

Don't send them to landfill!

A Good Thing is a matchmaking app that makes it easy for businesses to donate unwanted items directly to a local charity.

- Surplus or end-of-line stock
- Furniture, fixtures and fittings
- General business supplies
- Absolutely anything unwanted

Simply describe what you have and we'll find a local charity that needs it.

How it works:

1. You post an offer
2. Local charities request
3. You select a charity
4. The charity collects
