Key reading for the week

Summary: The blog suggests that great teaching is built upon great expectations. It suggests that teachers should set high expectations from the outset and they should continually reinforce these. This includes lessons which have depth, rigorous subject knowledge and challenge, effective questioning, and a clear sense of purpose.

Limitations: This resource does not include any supporting data to support the strategies it suggests. Therefore, it could just be presumed to be Sherrington's opinion. The blog has also not been reviewed by other experts so again, it has not been subject to scrutiny and should not be accepted as 'fact'.

Curriculum for the week

This week the trainee should have demonstrated that they know:

1: Setting clear expectations can help communicate shared values that improve classroom and school culture.

Yes No

2: Establishing and reinforcing routines, including through positive reinforcement, can help create an effective learning environment in history.

Yes No

3: It is fundamentally important to know and understand the school's policies and procedures such as the DSO and safeguarding team and their role and the process for reporting concerns.

Yes No

4: It is important to foster a safe learning environment where teachers help pupils understand their perceptions of their own cultural heritage and those of others.

Yes No

This week the trainee should have demonstrated that they know how to:

1: Model courteous and aspirational behaviour.

Yes No

2: Use inspirational and consistent language that promotes challenge, aspiration, resilience, and praises pupil effort.

Yes No

3: Set tasks which stretch pupils, but which are achievable.

Yes No

4: Create a positive and respectful learning environment in which making mistakes, resilience and perseverance are part of a daily routine.

Yes No

5: Develop communication and questioning skills, for example ask and answer historical questions to make sense of the complexity of people's lives, the process of change, the diversity of societies and relationships between different groups using a wide range of historical scholarship and evidence.

Yes No

Actions or follow up (if needed)

Has the trainee's wellbeing been discussed?

Yes No

Actions or follow up (if needed)

Trainee attendance this week - please enter the number of days.

Opportunities identified for progress

Based on the curriculum for this week, which skill(s) need(s) development.

How, where and/or when could the trainee observe, practice and or receive feedback on these skills?

Progress

Current progress would suggest that the trainee is making sufficient progress through the curriculum to proceed:

- Trainee is making sufficient progress through the curriculum and has demonstrated appropriate professional behaviours.
- Trainee is making sufficient progress through the curriculum, but this has required additional support.
- Despite additional support the trainee is not making sufficient progress through the curriculum and/or has not displayed the appropriate professional behaviours. A Progress Support Plan should be considered.

Please list the additional support provided below. For example, a reduction in teaching load, additional meetings, use of team-teaching etc.
